No Mercy for Women.

John Bright against giving votes to to buy a little house, that saved paying women was that "with regard to pun-ishments there is much greater modera- and now I have more than we need to tion and mercy dealt out to women than to men." As a commentary on this extraordinary assertion, we will take two as would have been the case if you had cases which have occurred within the supported her, could you, out of your past few weeks. At the Liverpool Assigner of July 25th, a woman named family? If you had paid for the cooking was charged with the cases which have occurred within the past few weeks. At the Liverpool Assists on July 25th, a woman named the past few weeks, and the considerable with the analyst of the grossection said this case seemed to the one of the saidest that bus ever come within his experience. The woman had been described by the father of the children; and left utterly destitute. She went to the work-house to be confined. At the end of a fortnight she left the work-house, taking the halies with her. Then, wenkened by her condition and absolutely destitute, the unhappy mather put them into the water. When charged with murder, she cried: "I've wish to tak! the truth and plead for mercy, I was proverly and not cracity that made me strown my children every day since. I was destitute. I had no linuse, or bed to lie on."

Now, had this poor woman been Thomas Harlew, blacksmith's striker, who, at these and she will be more than and killed her on the spott security which was extended to the num-first by the liver will be mean of the work house of the country which was extended to the num-first by the large and country the country which was extended to the num-first by the heart of the country which was extended to the num-first by the heart of the offense of killing a wife. But Harrigan—not being a mile, vigorous-blacksmith, and the search of killing a wife. But Harrigan—not being a mile, vigorous-blacksmith, and the past of killing a wife. But Harrigan—not being a mile, vigorous-blacksmith, and the search of the supposition of the surface of killing a wife. But Harrigan—not being a mile, vigorous-blacksmith, and the surface of killing a wife. But Harrigan—not being a mile, vigorous-blacksmith, and the surface of killing a wife. But Harrigan—not being a mile, vigorous-blacksmith, and the case of killing a wife. But Harrigan—not being a mile, vigorous-blacksmith, and the proposition and the surface of the large and the case of killing a wife. But Harrigan—not being a mile, vigorous-blacksmith, and the proposition and the proposition and the by Hiness, and distracted in her mind—was evidently no subject for such mercital consideration. The jury found her guilty of "willful murder," and Lord Chief Justice Cockburn had no alternative but to pass a sentence of death, in doing so, he said be would add his own recommendation to mercy to that of the jury, and we may assume that the unhappy woman will not be hanged. Nevertheless, the law condemned the woman, and the woman only, while the greatest criminal escaped. The counsel for the prisoner pointed out that the "true culprit" was the man M'Loughillu. He had left his call deep and left in purchas to occupy. It takes away self-respect, self-appreciation, in dependence, and freedom of thought and thought and friendly subject to respect, self-appreciation, in dependence, and freedom of thought and thought and friendly subject to respect, self-appreciation, in dependence, and freedom of thought and friendly subject to self-appreciation, in dependence, and freedom of thought and thought and friendly subject to self-appreciation, in dependence, and freedom of thought and thought and friendly subject to subject to subject to occupy. It takes the dependence, and freedom of thought and thought and friendly subject to subject to subject to distinguish their subject to subject to dependence, and freedom of thought and friendly subject to subject to dependence, and freedom of thought and friendly subject to subject to dependence, and freedom of thought and friendly subject to subject to dependence, and freedom of thought and friendly subject to subject to dependence, and freedom of thought and friendly subject to subject to dependence, and freedom of thought and friendly subject to subject to dependence, and freedom of thought and friendly subject to subject to dependence, and friendly subject to dependence, and friendly subject to

A very similar case was revealed at independent to any should, and men will love and respect them much more than if they cring the body of Annie Riley, an infant nine menths old. The mother, Elien Riley, a poor widow, had been left in great want by the father of the child, with

tion which led to the crime

grave, the scaffold or the convict's cell? money any drawback to the match."

We venture to suggest to the com-missioners who are preparing the re-vised criminal code to consider whether, vised criminal code to consider whether, vised criminal code to consider whether, since "provocation" is held to be a sufficient cause to reduce the crime of killing a woman—especially a wife—from murber to manshaghter, a provision might not be introduced to render "destitution" available as a similar plea when a desorted and starving mother seeks sheller in the grave for her offspring or herself from the over-power-ing ordery of their lot. At present such despairing women, covels of the woman who has loved and trusted him—a classification revolting affice to humany, justice and truth. At Dundee, on August 21, a young man named Maclean was fined £5, or a month's imprisonment, for fixing a chain round his wife's neck, and fastenthin round his wife and trust his round ing her by means of the chain and a padlock to the floor of a room. The unhappy woman was discovered in this condition by the police, who entered the house on information given by the heighbors. The woman was unable to our position for more than twenty-four

Had the victim of this outrage been a man, or even a woman other than the assaliant's wife, this sentence would hardly have been considered an adequate measure of the reprelation due to the offense. We lear that atmething of the principle which is said to prevait among the Callres, where crimes against women have been held to be no crimes, because the women were the property of the men by whom the crimes were committed, must on this occasion have committed, must on this occasion have influenced the decision of the judicial authorities of Dundee.—Women's Sur-

Mr. Troy Dye turns out to have been at one time, the superintendent of a sunday school, a man of exemplary piety and religious life. He then became a butcher, then a saloon-keeper, then an office-holder, and finally a murderer. His course has been ever on-ward and upward. Young man, begin at the bottom of the ladder.—Aryonaul. Who Will Support You?

"Do I understand that you wish to "Do I understand that you wish to procure more rights, privileges, and freedom for women "" asked a lovial, good-hearted, honest old gentleman, when the subject of equal rights for women was mentioned in his hearing, "Well, that is too comical. You are supported in case and comfort; you go where you wish, say what you please, and do little else than gad and gossip, That may be hard work, but I take it, if you had to go through the hard, cold, the street of the support of the case work.
